ABOUT

The Spring Pop Music Festival is designed for student instrumentalists to showcase their performance abilities in a fun and creative manner. Students perform a variety of 20th and 21st century music ranging from current pop tunes heard on the radio, including movie themes, Disney tunes, Broadway musicals, popular standards, New Age music, jazz, rags, blues, and rock music. Improvisation is allowed and students may choose to perform solo or as part of an ensemble. Teachers and parents may accompany their students and children. This is a non-competitive event in recital format.
